

April 2015

Easter Weekend Launch of Phase 1C

Good Friday will see the launch of the next Phase of Navigation Point with the first dwellings due for completion in Nov 2015.

This will include a range of two, three and four bed houses in and around the Central Square.

We are also able to take reservations from cash purchasers, (ie not reliant on a mortgage and who can proceed to exchange of contracts) for other properties within Phase 1C not yet on the price list. This includes detached Langdons, a Newland with a garage and a range of three and four bed houses overlooking the Oxbow.

We have a range of two three and four bed show houses to view which demonstrates the quality of finish.

In addition, we will also have a mortgage advisor either on site over the weekend or easily contactable for those key mortgage questions. Help to Buy is also available

We still have some fantastic offers on some four bed houses due for completion in the next 5 months so please speak to our sales team for more information.
